WEEKLY KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET REPORT

Kansas City Stock Yards, October 18, 1915. Range beef cattle closed last week 10 to 15 higher. Country demand is exceptionally heavy. 43,000 stockers and feeders bought here and shipped out last week, 57% of the total cattle supply. Receipts today are 31,000 head, containing a fairly liberal number of range cattle. Total supply at the leading markets is smaller today than last Monday, and the market on beef cattle is 10 to 15 higher in some cases. Country demand is stronger, if anything, than last week, as prospective buyers begin to appreciate the fact that heavy runs will soon be over for this year. Choice panhandle yearlings sold up to $8.25 today. New Mexico yearlings $7.75 to $8.00, and Colorado yearlings and twos at $7.70 and $7.75. These prices were paid for the best cattle, middle grades dropping down a dollar or more per hundred below these figures. Fat cows sold at $5.50 to $6.50, some heifers $6.75. Colorado beef steers sold at $6.75 to $7.40. Receipts today contained nothing from points beyond Colorado, but good Idaho and Oregon beef steers are quotable up to $7.65. Sheep and lamb supply was 12,600, market steady. No good fat lambs were included, medium colorados selling at $8.00, and some heavy Arizona lambs, 85 lbs. average, at $8.15. Fat ewes were worth $5.40 to $6.00, best fat wethers $6.50, yearlings around $7.00. Feeders lambs are selling steady, the demand having switched from heavy feeding lambs to lighter weights. Some 51 lb. Mexican lambs sold at $8.35 today, heavier feeding lambs $8 to $8.20. Feeding and breeding ewes continue in strong demand, Wyoming breeding ewes today at $6 to $6.50, and feeding ewes at $4.80 to $5.50. Moderate receipts are expected here, and stronger prices, buyers particularly appreciating good choice fat lambs.

"Pepsibounce" is a new soft drink being sold at Jerome. "Pep" and "bounce" are alright but what's the "si" for? More?

The little town of Duncan, near Clifton, is crowded with refugees from Clifton and Morenci, where the big mining strike is on.

Mrs. Fred Morrey, of Douglas, claims that her husband set their house on fire in an effort to cremate her and her two children.

He was no squirrel. J. W. Adams, of Lakeside, fell from a tree he had climbed to secure a squirrel that was lodged on a limb, and broke his wrist.

The Arizona Power Co. announces that it will add another unit to its big hydroelectric plant on Fossil Creek. Construction work will probably commence before the end of the year.

Roman Hubbell, son of Senator J. Lorenzo Hubbell, has purchased a flying machine to transport mail from Gallup to his trading post at Oraibi. Parts of the machine have already arrived.

SHEEP MOVING TO WINTER QUARTERS

The annual movement of sheep to desert ranges for the winter has started, and yesterday six bands, aggregating over 12,000 head were in the Jerome Junction country headed for Date Creek. They are owned by C. E. Burton, and he states that about 8,000 more head are to leave in a short time.

Two sales of sheep were reported yesterday. Colin Campbell of Ash Fork, and the Aubrey Investment Co. disposing of over 4,000 head to Phillips & Hammond of Phoenix. The livestock is to be delivered today at Cedar Glade and will go to the desert near Congress Junction for winter grazing. —Prescott Journal Miner.

Wool Growers to Hold Meeting

The Arizona Wool Grower's Association will hold a special meeting of that body on Thursday Oct. 28th at the Court house in Flagstaff at 2 o'clock p. m. The meeting is one of special importance to sheepmen using the national forest and each member is urgently requested to attend the meeting. The call has been sent out by President H. J. Gray and Secretary L. F. Verkamp.

The Fuller Cattle Co. sold 800 head of two and three year old steers to J. R. Norton the cattle buyer. They were shipped to Phoenix from Winslow Sunday.

R. B. Walton will ship 1250 head of lambs on Oct. 21st from Hibbard to the Cudahy Packing Co. in Los Angeles.

Harry Hibben, the heavy weight sheepman, shipped sixteen car loads of sheep east from Bellemont Tuesday.

Instead of Hazing

"Here's a queer item."
"What about?"
"About a school where the old students go around on opening week and welcome the new boys."

Two Children Had Croup

The two children of J. W. Nix, merchant, Cleveland, Ga., had croup last winter. One was a boy of 6, the other a girl of 8 years. Mr. Nix writes: "Both got so choked up they could hardly breathe and couldn't talk. I gave them Foley's Honey and Tar and nothing else and it entirely cured them." This reliable medicine should be in every home for it gives immediate relief from colds, coughs and croup, heals raw inflamed throat and loosens phlegm. Will Marlar Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

NEWS FROM OVER THE STATE

Many fires followed "fire prevention day" at Phoenix.

An unlimited supply of asbestos has been discovered on Ash Creek near Miami.

Grandpa Quinn, of Layton, has celebrated his 99th birthday and is hale and hearty.

Typhoid fever is epidemic at Gallup, N. M. Several cases have been traced to the water used in the town.

John Denair an old time railroad man, well known in Northern Arizona, died in Los Angeles last week with pneumonia.

Seventeen car loads of fat sheep were shipped out of Holbrook yesterday to Los Angeles. The sheep had been sold by Geo. Scott, Fred Purcell and others to the Cudahy Packing Co. —Holbrook News.

Last Sunday, about 2 o'clock, at Eagar, John Hall's hay stacks etc. went up in smoke. It is reported that it was the boy with the match. Further particulars we have not learned. —St. Johns Herald.

Louis Henteg of Sacaton, who was on his way to Winslow, in an auto, left it standing at the top of a hill with his young son in it. The boy was instructed to leave it alone, but curiosity got the best of him and he pulled the brake clutch letting the car ramble down hill. The boy was thrown out but not seriously injured. The auto ran down into a small gulch and against a pine stump. It was not much damaged.

Some Gathering of Beans

A. T. Willis has the contract for furnishing Babbitt Bros. at Flagstaff with 90,000 pounds of dried beans. He informs that he is having a hard time in getting the order filled, there not being enough frijoles raised in this section to cover so large a contract. It would be well for our farmers to hereafter raise more beans. —Snowflake Herald.

Little Child Drowned

Official word was received too late for publication last week of the death of an infant boy at Lakeside. The little fellow was the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Mahonri L. Fish and was only eleven months old. The story goes that while inspecting the premises in the immediate neighborhood of the house he fell down a five foot well and was drowned. —Snowflake Herald.

Buys Kingman Property

T. E. Pollock, the big banker and sheep raiser, this week bought from E. F. Thompson, A. E. Ware and I. M. George the lots on the northeast corner of Fourth and Beale streets, paying a good round sum for them. It is understood that he will erect on this corner a handsome bank and office building. —Kingman Miner.

A Real Horrid Man

A good way to test your wife for sincerity when she says a woman is able to do anything a man can do, and doesn't want to be patronized by the lordly sex, is to let her get up at daylight and stoke the furnace into a mood for heating the dining room by breakfast time. —Globe Record.

When the Devil Drives

Some unknown person entered the residence of Deputy Sheriff Harp, of Winslow between the hours of 3 and 10 o'clock at night and took a suit case containing 12 quarts of whiskey, which he had recently taken from a would-be bootlegger and was holding as evidence. Sheriff Newman was called from Holbrook, and together they are making every effort to find the thief. —Winslow Mail.

Tinker Tinkering Again

J. M. Tinker, a former printer of Kingman, and who left here some three weeks ago leaving in his wake a trail of spurious checks, was apprehended at Paris, Ill., through the agency of the sheriff's office. Mr. Lane left Kingman Sunday, October 3rd, after Tinker, returning last Monday morning. Tinker has engaged Elmo Bollinger as counsel to represent him and his preliminary will come up before Justice Cohenour.

It is reported that he is paroled from Apache county on a similar charge.—Kingman Mineral Wealth.

Will Release Land

From Mr. J. F. Mahoney we learn that there is an early prospect of getting the withdrawn lands north of Winslow put back for homestead entry. While in Flagstaff he had a conference with Land Commissioner Meaurio, and that gentleman said he would give the proposition his earliest attention, and there would be no delay in his office in expecting action. That is the kind of a public official we like, and if he can help Winslow get this land open he will always find a royal welcome in this community. —Winslow Mail.

Looking Over Kingman County

A. A. Dutton, of Flagstaff, was a Kingman visitor Wednesday leaving yesterday morning for Oatman where he is going to look over the mines of that section.

J. W. Francis, mayor of Flagstaff, son Irven, J. M. Godney and Fred Garing were in Kingman this week looking over the mining situation. —Mohave Mineral Wealth.

Free Until 1916

Have you subscribed yet for The Youth's Companion for 1916? Now is the time to do it, if you are not already a subscriber, for you will get all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1915 free from the time your subscription with $2.00 is received.

The fifty-two issues of 1916 will be crowded with good reading for young and old. Reading that is entertaining, but not "wishy-washy." Reading that leaves you, when you lay the paper down, better informed, with keener aspirations, with a broader outlook on life. The Companion is a good paper to tie to if you have a growing family—and for general reading, as Justice Brewer once said, no other is necessary.

If you wish to know more of the brilliant list of contributors, from our ex-Presidents down, who will write for the new volume in 1916, and if you wish to know something of the new stories for 1916, let us send you free the Forecast for 1916.

Every new subscriber who sends $2.00 for 1916 will receive, in addition to this year's free issues, The Companion Home Calendar for 1916.

The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass.

Fast Mover

Three days after the storm struck Potlatch, Okla., Jackrabbit Smith, a prominent citizen, was discovered two counties northeast in a somewhat rumpled condition.

"Were you blown here by the cyclone?" he was asked.
"Heck, no!" he replied. "I outrun it."

Line Not Busy

"I believe," said the impatient man, as he put aside the telephone, "that I'll go fishing."

"Didn't know you cared for fishing," said the bookkeeper.
"I don't ordinarily. But it's the only chance I have of finding myself at the end of a line that isn't busy."

A Modest Request

"Dear teacher," wrote little Edith's mother, "please excuse Edith for not coming to school yesterday. She fell in the mud. By doing the same you will greatly oblige."
"Her Mother."

Minister Gives Testimony

The Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havana, Fla., writes: For three months I suffered intense pain in kidneys and back, which at times laid me up entirely. I read of Foley Kidney Pills and after trying various remedies without result I decided to try the Foley treatment. I was relieved almost with the first dose and it is a fact that I used only 1 1/2 bottles when all of the pains disappeared. I am 55 years of age and now feel like a young man again."
